

Attendance At Elks' Show Will Be Large

Tickets for the Elks' big minstrel show are going like hot cakes at the Union drug store, and already several hundred have been sold. This is the biggest advance sale of seats for a show in Tonopah in a long time. In fact most of the very desirable seats in the house have been taken. Not only because of the popularity of this form of amusement, but also because of the excellence of each number presented, a record breaking audience will without doubt greet the Elks when the curtain rises next Saturday evening.

Those intending to attend should not delay in engaging seats within the next day or so, as it is predicted that there will not be an unsold seat by Saturday. Al G. Flournoy is working hard with his performers every day and many times a day, and he is very much encouraged by the interest and aptitude displayed by all who are to take part in the show.

Of all the most interesting features, perhaps the ballet is making the greatest improvement and by the time to enter the ring—beg pardon—the stage, every performer will be trained to the minute. Ed Malley wakes his family at 5 a. m. practicing in the woodshed in his pajamas, while Puddy Grimes keeps the baby awake at night singing "Maria." Bert Gibbons has worn most of the hair off the top of his head doing the acrobatic stunt assigned to him, while Walter Agnew dislocated three vertebrae getting the proper curve in his back required by the kangaroo glide, which is one of the new things in this brilliant number.

Lex Diggs is so stiff from constant rehearsing that he falls out of bed every morning to limber himself up, and A. H. Rounsevell chases himself three times around Mt. Oddie every morning before daylight to get the right flexibility of muscle required to do justice to his assignment.

The drill of the amazon army to the tune of "Captain Willie Brown" would convulse a wooden Indian cigar sign.

No phase of the show can be adequately described and even after it is seen many will doubt the evidence of their own sense.

CALIFORNIA WRESTLING

WITH PUBLIC MORALS BILL
(By Associated Press.)
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—The assembly committee on public morals met in executive session late this afternoon and decided to report favorably to the house tomorrow on the Walker-Otis racetrack bill, which is the one favored by the anti-track league. In the senate two far-reaching resolutions were introduced by Senator Caminetti, one calling for the senate committee to investigate the freight situation in the state, the other asking the harbor commissioners for information regarding the proposed improvement of the San Francisco water front. Caminetti also presented a petition that created much discussion. It had been addressed to Lieutenant Governor Porter by Giles O. Pierce, of San Andreas, asking for the impeachment of Superior Judge Arthur McSorley of Calaveras county. Assemblyman Drew's bill denying aliens the right to own property, made a special order for Wednesday for its third reading and passage.

DUFOUR SHOULD BE HUNG

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Retribution has overtaken Alphonse and Eva Dufour, who, indicted in the first government's white slave cases, escaped punishment here by forfeiting $25,000 bail bonds.

They fled to their old home in France and according to a report received by the immigration bureau today have just been sentenced to prison in France for harboring an American girl.

Dufour was sentenced to five years and his wife to two years' imprisonment.

Among the new advertisements appearing in this issue of the Bonanza is that of the Bank saloon, the most popular resort in Tonopah. Messrs. Hafferton and Drysdale need no introduction to the people of our city and a person can rest assured that he will receive courteous treatment. Nothing but the finest of wines, liquors and cigars are kept in stock and to any who desire to spend a pleasant half hour no better place than the Bank saloon can be found.

SUBPOENAED AS WITNESSES IN SHOOTING CASE

W. H. Greeg, O. B. Blumgren, Tex Watson, Glen Snyder and Harvey Brownwell came in from Golden Arrow last evening, having been subpoenaed as witnesses in the shooting case which occurred there Thursday, when Frank Hall was shot in the neck, supposedly by Frank Conway. It is not known when the preliminary examination of Conway will take place, as he has been released on bonds and has returned to Golden Arrow. Hall's condition is improving and he will be able to be out of the hospital in a short time. No further particulars could be learned about the case other than that there were no eye witnesses to the shooting.

The Merchants hotel has taken space in the Bonanza and announces that the place is being run in a first class manner. Manager P. Fabbi has had a great deal of experience in the hotel line and under his supervision the hostelry should make a favorite stopping place for those who travel.

NEVADA SHEEP MEN PRAYING FOR MORE SNOW

Sheep men in southern Nevada are having a hard time at present owing to the light fall of snow. They depend on the snow for water to feed the flocks and as this district has had very little snow up to date the animals are rather hard pressed. There are about 100,000 head of sheep in the vicinity of Rye Patch, and while there is no suffering now there will be when the time comes to drive them back to the ranges in the eastern part of the county and in Lander county. Consequently every sheep man is praying for snow.
